25X1

1. On 19 December 274 communications personnel, recruited in North China by the Ministry of Communications; Ministry of Posts, Telegraph, and Telephone; and the North China Post and Telegraph Administration, left Peiping for Korea. They are to report to the "People's Volunteers Army Front Command" in Pyongyang.
2. The men were not volunteers but were given their assignments by the organs in which they had been employed. In Korea 130 of them are to fill communications jobs made vacant by casualties; the remainder will travel with the army as an army post service.
